NATION'S INDUSTRIES SLOWLY SLOWING DOWN

BECAUSE OF COAL AND RAIL STRIKES; MORE DISORDERS

RATIONING OF COAL MAY BE RE- SORTED TO TO CONSERVE SUPPLY

MANY PUBLIC UTILITIES MUST CLOSE FOR WANT OF FUEL— STEAMERS LAID UP

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 21—Slowly paralyzing the nation's industries, threatening widespread shortage of light and heat within a few days, causing increasing disorders, loss of life and property, damage already running into millions, the combined rail and coal strikes have brought on an industrial crisis, the magnitude of which was revealed in an exclusive report to the United Press today from all parts of the country.

Not only are the wheels slowing on the country's transportation systems, but public utilities are closing down and actual suffering because of shortage of coal is not far off, advices indicate.

Disorders are reported from coast to coast. New England carriers announce an increased sabotage on many lines. Pacific coast roads reported kidnappings and beatings.

Coal Situation Acute

Washington, July 21—Trouble is feared in western Pennsylvania, W. Virginia and Ohio as mines are reopened. State troops are out in New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Serious fuel shortages due in part to the coal strike, but to the car shortage caused by the rail shopmen's walkout as well, were reported from all parts of the country.

Some steamship lines on the Great Lakes are down to four days' supply. Cleveland has only three days' ration of coal for its light plant.

Iowa farmers are hard pressed for fuel to run their threshing machines and public utilities.

The Des Moines waterworks must close in 15 days.

Denver has been hard hit due to curtailment of tourist traffic which ordinarily brings upwards of $30,000,000 annually.

Schools at Emporia, Kansas, are without fuel, while at Hannibal all street lights have been discontinued.

Business, big and little, throughout the country felt the pinch today. The steel industries at Youngstown, Ohio, was closed down.

Rationing, confiscation and emergency measures to import coal were announced from many states. Wisconsin expects to ration fuel shortly. Ohio threatens to confiscate private coal shipments.

Industries at Cleveland will start closing down in five days unless emergency rationing is immediately effective.

Train service continued to fall more and more in the grips of the strikes. Trains came off on practically all roads running into Chicago.

Eastern roads were announcing further suspensions as were southern railroads.

In the extreme west where the coal shortage has not been felt as yet, many trains have been taken off including 27 on the Northern Pacific.

Gov. Preus on Coal Situation

St. Paul, July 21—Unless coal begins to move into the northwest and the New England states by Aug. 1, a serious situation will exist, Governor J. A. O. Preus said today.

"The coal strike must be settled first," he said. "Unless we can get coal, there is no use trying to run the railroads."

The governor returned late yesterday after a ten days' trip investigating the situation. He was at his desk early today seeking last minute reports on the coal situation.

"Public utilities must not stop," he said. "Drastic action must be taken if the situation is to be faced. I do not think there is much danger of the utilities being shut down. Unless we can get more coal within a short time, however, I am afraid there will be some suffering."

The governor described the coal situation as serious. He said the northwest and New England states must have priority orders, and that administration leaders assured him of this.

CONFESSES TO MURDER OF MAN ON FREIGHT

(By United Press.)
Minneapolis, July 21—Dan O'Connor, of Minneapolis, and George Sheats, of Williamsville, Ill., have confessed the murder July 9 of George Downs, Williamsville, on a freight train near Reno, Nev., according to word reaching here.

Train men captured O'Connor and Sheats, 19-year-old boys, after they saw them acting suspiciously.

Downs was found in a dying condition in a refrigerator car.

FIVE BILLION IN GOODS NEW YORK'S OUTPUT

(By United Press.)
New York, June 21—In spite of the efforts of motion picture producers, who would have people think of New York as a vast playground peopled by millionaires and its streets lined with cabarets and theatres, the greatest city in the world maintains its supremacy as the world's leading manufacturing center.

Statistics recently made public by the Department of Commerce at Washington reveal facts about the metropolis that are hard to reconcile with the stories of dissipation and hectic night life which appear to be the rule in current periodicals and Sunday supplements. Broadway and Fifth avenue are not the only thoroughfares in New York.

To those who are accustomed to think of that city in terms of skyscrapers, shopping districts and theatres, it is surprising to learn that in 1919 goods whose value exceeded $5,000,000,000 were manufactured in Manhattan and Brooklyn. That is enough to supply every person in the United States with $50 worth of merchandise and is equal to one-twelfth of the total amount of goods manufactured in the entire country.

Chicago and Philadelphia follow New York in the relative importance of their manufactures.

It may be true that New York is a paradise for bootleggers and that more money is spent for amusement and race-track gambling than in any city in the western hemisphere; yet there are 32,599 thriving manufacturing establishments with a total capitalization of more than $3,000,000,000. These factories employ almost a million persons, or approximately 15 per cent of the total population. Many of them are in the heart of the city, concealed in back streets, dim-lighted basements or the clean, airy upper floors of skyscrapers. Most of them especially the larger ones, are clustered along the North and East rivers and in the thinly populated areas at the city's edge where large open spaces still exist.

The average New York City factory employed 25 persons of whom about 20 are wage earners and the remainder officials or clerks. Evidently the average establishment is somewhat smaller than that of some of the large industrial centers. Chicago employs an average of 48, Philadelphia 37, Boston 36 and Baltimore more than 42 per establishment.

Each New York factory worker in 1919 produced an average of $6,376.18. The average income for all persons engaged in factory work was $1,372.02.

Compared with the figures for 1914 every industry shows an increase in the amount of goods produced.

More than one-fifth of the country's entire population lives within 200 miles of Battery Park, New York City.

STRIKING SHOP MEN READY TO NEGOTIATE WITH SEPARATE ROADS

(By United Press.)
Chicago, July 21—Striking shopmen are ready to negotiate with individual railroads.

Bert M. Jewell, president of the shop crafts, declared today that peace may result from conferences with the separate roads. "It is my belief, however, that separate agreements would not be as satisfactory as a national agreement," Mr. Jewell said. "But our aim is to end it. We do not care in what manner it is ended as long as the railroads agree to our demands."

Several leading roads here are reported ready to negotiate individually.

JUNE BUSINESS INCREASED OVER JUNE LAST YEAR

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 21—Business for June registered a healthy increase over June of last year despite the coal strike, the labor department announced today. Ten out of twelve selected industries canvassed showed an increase over the normal of persons employed in May. Eight of these industries registered increased in employment over June 1 last year.

U. S. INTERESTS BUY COAL FROM BRITAIN

New York, July 21—Private cable advices received here today state that American interests have purchased between 200,000 and 300,000 tons of steam and gas coal in the British market in the last week. Seven freighters already have been engaged to transport the coal to this country and negotiations are pending for the chartering of several more.

The bulk of the shipments, the first of which is expected here about Aug. 1, probably will be made to this port, although large consignments also have been made for Boston and Philadelphia firms. Most of the coal is believed to be destined for large public utility and industrial concerns, whose reserve stocks have almost been depleted since the strike.

Local dealers pointed out today that present prices for coal made it profitable to import the British product, but they explained that an element of speculation was involved in that it was impossible to forecast what prices would be two weeks hence when the coal actually arrived here.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS VERDICT OF MANSLAUGHTER

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, July 21—Arthur Pearson, convicted of manslaughter in Polk county in 1920, was held guilty by the supreme court today.

Pearson was charged with having killed his wife's new-born baby while he and his wife were at the Hotel Crookston, in February, 1920. The babe was found dead on the roof of the hotel. Pearson denied it was their child, but was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

ACID FOUND IN STOMACH OF MAN WHO DROPPED DEAD

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, July 21—Examination of the body of a man who dropped on the Wabasha street bridge Wednesday night revealed carbolic acid in his stomach, coroner Ingerson announced. City authorities are trying to identify him. He was of light complexion, about 30 years old, five feet five inches tall, weight about 150 pounds, had gray eyes and wore a dark suit and a black hat. In his pocket was an envelope addressed to John Miller, Duluth.

President Budd said that the Great Northern will be the first line in the northwest to launch an employees

PRESIDENT CONFERS WITH CABINET ON STRIKE; CALLS HOOPER

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 21—President Harding and the men of his cabinet conferred today to bring about a termination of the rail strike.

He summoned Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board to come to the White House at once for a conference. Harding and Hooper, now at Chicago, talked over the rail strike situation over the long distance telephone today.

The president, it was indicated, after his conference here with Hooper, may summon rail executives and striking shopmen leaders to Washington for a peace conference.

organization outside the union heretofore recognized.

Officials of the road will go to St. Cloud within a few days to organize a shopmen's, oilers, blacksmiths and car cleaners union there, he said. "We had 500 men working in the St. Cloud shops yesterday," he said. "This is more than we had up to June when we increased the force there to 600."

"We are in better shape at St. Cloud than at any other point on the line. We are going to have strictly a Great Northern organization not to be dominated or controlled by outside interests. We are going to see to it that the men who run our workmen are employees of our own lines. I am willing to pay more than the railroad labor board scale if necessary to have our own organization."

"If we cannot have our own organization and deal with our own employees, I am willing to shut down the road until we can."

President of other lines after meeting at President Budd's office Thursday made similar preparations to organize company unions.

Situation Today

Chicago, July 21—The rail strike shuffled into a rut today.

Failure of the Washington conference of rail executives to reach any basis for settlement apparently closed the last door to a next move for peace.

The glimmer of hope was seen in the announcement of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad that it was ready to "confer with its men" in an effort to reach an agreement.

This action held out the possibility of settlement by agreement of individual roads with the strikers.

The joker, however, was contained in the words, "Confer with its men." Union chiefs pointed out that the railroads might refuse to meet with the union leaders who will be appointed as strikers representatives. This would block the move before it was started.

On the other hand, if the B. & O. meets with the union chiefs and a settlement is effected, other roads will follow the same procedure.

Another optimistic development was the decision of the Federal court of appeals here revising Federal Judge Paige's decision in the Pennsylvania case and restoring to the United States railroad labor board certain powers to protect the interests of the union. This would remove one of the chief grievances of the striking shopmen.

Maintenance of way chairmen were to meet in Detroit today with President E. F. Grable to definitely decide whether Grable's peace negotiations will be adhered to. Indications were that the conferees will uphold their leader.

Minor disturbances and further curtailment of train service, the latter due as much to the increasing coal shortage as to the strike, continued. Otherwise, the situation was unchanged.

"Shelving" of Labor Board Seen

Cleveland, July 21—"Shelving" of the railroad labor board was seen here today by officials of the big railroad brotherhoods in the offer of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to negotiate with the striking shopmen. Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers predicted similar moves by other railroads.

"It seems that nobody is paying much attention to the railroad labor board," was Stone's comment.

Drive Negro Strike Breakers Out

Austin, Minn., July 21—A mob of more than 100 strikers drove 15 negro strike breakers from town late last night after beating two of them.

About 200 employees of the Milwaukee railroad shops were out. Everything was peaceful until a negro started to work at the shops.

The mob invaded the yards dividing the negroes into small groups and escorted them from town warning them not to return.

Several shots were fired near the shops. Deputies and police arrived on the scene after the crowd had dispersed. They searched all pickets for firearms. Arrests are expected.

Citizens Deputized to Preserve Order

Fremont, Neb., July 21—One hundred and fifty leading citizens of Fremont were deputized today to preserve order in the strike.

Police, posted on every corner in the downtown district accosted men whose names were taken from rosters of the American Legion and the Chamber of Commerce and under provisions of the state law, they were deputized.

Many of the drafted men took up the duty of guard under protest.

State Constabulary at Buffalo

Buffalo, N. Y., July 21—Six troops of the state constabulary arrived here today after three persons shot down by railroad detectives guarding the Erie railroad car shops. Two of the injured are in a critical condition at the hospital here.

Battle in Coal Fields

Pittsburgh, July 21—A battle marked with shooting and attempted dynamiting broke out in Fayette county coal fields today between striking miners and guards as national guardsmen converged on the disturbed area.

Guards at the Dearth mine opened fire on miners as they attempted to set fire to the tippie.

Federal Mediation Proposed in Congress

Washington, July 21—Federal mediation of the shopmen's strike, which, with the fuel shortage resulting from the coal strike, is threatening to paralyze the nation's industries, was proposed to congress today by representatives of the "Big Four" railroad brotherhoods.

The suggestion was made to Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee by representatives of the locomotive engineers, the conductors, the firemen and engineers and the trainmen that congress make an immediate appropriation to revive the road board of mediation and conciliation as provided in the Newlands act passed several years ago.

GERMANY AGREES TO ARBITRATION OF AMERICAN CLAIMS

(By United Press.)
Berlin, July 21—Germany today agreed to the American proposal for an international court of adjustment to arbitrate disputes between the two countries, such as an indemnity for the sinking of the Lusitania and other vessels in which there was loss of property and life.

IRISH REBELLION AGAINST FREE STATE NEAR A COLLAPSE

(By United Press.)
Dublin, July 21—The Irish rebellion against the Free State government was near collapse today when Waterford and Limerick, two of the last insurgent strongholds, fell to the loyal troops.

Hundreds of rebel troops were captured and many fled when the two cities were stormed and entered by the Free State soldiers.

EDITOR ARRESTED EXPRESSING SYM- PAHTY FOR STRIKERS

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE, OF EM- PORIA GAZETTE, DEFIES INDUSTRIAL LAW

CALLS IT THROTTLES FREE SPEECH—IS PERSONAL FRIEND OF GOV. ALLEN

(By United Press.)
Emporia, Kan., July 21—Arrest of William Allen White, Emporia publisher, ordered by Governor Henry Allen for expressing sympathy with the strikers, will leave their intimate friendship unchanged, both declared today.

"This is merely a test case of the right of free speech in Kansas," the author of "Henry and Me" declared today as he prepared for formal arrest, on a charge of violating the anti-picketing law of the Kansas industrial court.

"There is no reason why this incident should interfere with our personal matters and personal friendship in the least," Governor Allen said as a representative of the attorney general's office was ordered here to serve a warrant on White.

Ku Klux Klan Support White

Topeka, Kan., July 21—The Ku Klux Klan in Kansas was today reported to have joined William Allen White in support of the railroad strikers in defiance of Governor Allen and the industrial court.

Deny Offering Aid

Atlanta, Ga., July 21—The Ku Klux Klan today denied its plans to offer its services to state and federal authorities in helping prevent strike violence.

"We anticipate no such action," S. L. Savage, chief, declared.

OLD GENERAL APATHY LEADER IN ALABAMA

(By United Press.)
Birmingham, Ala., July 21—After a campaign of unparalleled apathy, Alabama will elect a governor, legislature and state officers in the democratic primary August 8.

Because of the overwhelming strength of the democratic party in this state, nomination is tantamount to election and the real contest is in the primary rather than the general election in November.

After a campaign lasting four years, Judge W. W. Brandon, of Tuscaloosa, is seeking the governorship. He is opposed by Gen. Bibb Graves, of Montgomery, but issues between the two have been lacking.

Immediately after his defeat four years ago by Gov. Thos. E. Kilby, Brandon began campaigning, with his eye on 1922, and astute politicians regard him as absolutely certain of election as a consequence.

Principal issue in the legislative race is whether or not the Alabama Power Co. shall continue to benefit from its exemption from taxes on approximately $10,000,000 worth of property. Some candidates are attempting to make this an issue, but so unanimous are those offering for office that little smoke can be raised.

Little interest has been manifested by voters in the remaining races, the principal ones being for state treasurer, secretary of state, and members of the public service commission.

In the latter contest, the chairman, not up for re-election, is assaulting vigorously the two associate members seeking re-election.

In the congressional races, practically all congressmen have opposition, but voters have devoted what little attention they have given to politics to the state races.

Activities of a number of women candidates, as a result of which one editor was thrashed by a candidate's husband, have furnished the sole colorful touch to an otherwise drab campaign.

PRESIDENT CONFERS WITH CABINET ON STRIKE; CALLS HOOPER

(By United Press)
Washington, July 21.—President Harding and the men of his cabinet conferred today to bring about a termination of the rail strike.

He summoned Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board to come to the White House at once for a conference.

Harding and Hooper, now at Chicago, talked over the rail strike situation over the long distance telephone today.

The president, it was indicated, after his conference here with Hooper, may summon rail executives and striking shopmen leaders to Washington for a peace conference.

organization outside the union heretofore recognized.

Officials of the road will go to St. Cloud within a few days to organize a shopmen's, oilers, blacksmiths and car cleaners union there, he said.

"We had 500 men working in the St. Cloud shops yesterday," he said. "This is more than we had up to June when we increased the force there to 600."

"We are in better shape at St. Cloud than at any other point on the line. We are going to have strictly a Great Northern organization not to be dominated or controlled by outside interests. We are going to see to it that the men who run our workmen are employees of our own lines. I am willing to pay more than the railroad labor board scale if necessary to have our own organization."

"If we cannot have our own organization and deal with our own employees, I am willing to shut down the road until we can."

President of other lines after meeting at President Budd's office Thursday made similar preparations to organize company unions.

Situation Today

Chicago, July 21.—The rail strike shuffled into a rut today.

Failure of the Washington conference of rail executives to reach any basis for settlement apparently closed the last door to a next move for peace.

The one glimmer of hope was seen in the announcement of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad that it was ready to "confer with its men" in an effort to reach an agreement.

This action held out the possibility of settlement by agreement of individual roads with the strikers.

The joker, however, was contained in the words, "Confer with its men." Union chiefs pointed out that the railroads might refuse to meet with the union leaders who will be appointed as strikers representatives. This would block the move before it was started.

On the other hand, if the B. & O. meets with the union chiefs and a settlement is effected, other roads will follow the same procedure.

Another optimistic development was the decision of the Federal court of appeals here revising Federal Judge Paige's decision in the Pennsylvania case and restoring to the United States railroad labor board certain powers to protect the interests of the union. This would remove one of the chief grievances of the striking shopmen.

Maintenance of way chairmen were to meet in Detroit today with President E. F. Grable to definitely decide whether Grable's peace negotiations will be adhered to. Indications were that the conferees will uphold their leader.

Minor disturbances and further curtailment of train service, the latter due as much to the increasing coal shortage as to the strike, continued. Otherwise, the situation was unchanged.

"Shelving" of Labor Board Seen

Cleveland, July 21.—"Shelving" of the railroad labor board was seen here today by officials of the big railroad brotherhoods in the offer of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to negotiate with the striking shopmen. Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers predicted similar moves by other railroads.

"It seems that nobody is paying much attention to the railroad labor board," was Stone's comment.

Drive Negro Strike Breakers Out

Austin, Minn., July 21.—A mob of more than 100 strikers drove 15 negro strike breakers from town late last night after beating two of them.

About 200 employees of the Milwaukee railroad shops were out. Everything was peaceful until a negro started to work at the shops.

The mob invaded the yards dividing the negroes into small groups and escorted them from town warning them not to return.

Several shots were fired near the shops. Deputies and police arrived on the scene after the crowd had dispersed. They searched all pickets for firearms. Arrests are expected.

Citizens Deputized to Preserve Order

Fremont, Neb., July 21.—One hundred and fifty leading citizens of Fremont were deputized today to preserve order in the strike.

Police, posted on every corner in the downtown district accosted men whose names were taken from rosters of the American Legion and the Chamber of Commerce and under provisions of the state law, they were deputized.

Many of the drafted men took up the duty of guard under protest.

State Constabulary at Buffalo

Buffalo, N. Y., July 21.—Six troops of the state constabulary arrived here today after three persons shot down by railroad detectives guarding the Erie railroad car shops. Two of the injured are in a critical condition at the hospital here.

Battle in Coal Fields

Pittsburgh, July 21.—A battle marked with shooting and attempted dynamite broke out in Fayette county coal fields today between striking miners and guards as national guardsmen converged on the disturbed area.

Guards at the Dearth mine opened fire on miners as they attempted to set fire to the tipple.

Federal Mediation Proposed in Congress

Washington, July 21.—Federal mediation of the shopmen's strike, which, with the fuel shortage resulting from the coal strike, is threatening to paralyze the nation's industries, was proposed to congress today by representatives of the "Big Four" railroad brotherhoods.

The suggestion was made to Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee by representatives of the locomotive engineers, the conductors, the firemen and enginemen and the trainmen that congress make an immediate appropriation to revive the road board of mediation and conciliation as provided in the Newlands act passed several years ago.

GERMANY AGREES TO ARBITRATION OF AMERICAN CLAIMS

(By United Press)
Berlin, July 21.—Germany today agreed to the American proposal for an international court of adjustment to arbitrate disputes between the two countries, such as an indemnity for the sinking of the Lusitania and other vessels in which there was loss of property and life.

IRISH REBELLION AGAINST FREE STATE NEAR A COLLAPSE

(By United Press)
Dublin, July 21.—The Irish rebellion against the Free State government was near collapse today when Waterford and Limerick, two of the last insurgent strongholds, fell to the loyal troops.

Hundreds of rebel troops were captured and many died when the two cities were stormed and entered by the Free State soldiers.

EDITOR ARRESTED EXPRESSING SYM- PAHY FOR STRIKERS

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE, OF EM-PORIA GAZETTE, DEFIES

CALLS IT THROTTLES FREE SPEECH—IS PERSONAL FRIEND OF GOV. ALLEN

(By United Press)
Emporia, Kan., July 21.—Arrest of William Allen White, Emporia publisher, ordered by Governor Henry Allen for expressing sympathy with the strikers, will leave their intimate friendship unchanged, both declared today.

"This is merely a test case of the right of free speech in Kansas," the author of "Henry and Me" declared today as he prepared for formal arrest, on a charge of violating the anti-picketing law of the Kansas industrial court.

"There is no reason why this incident should interfere with our personal matters and personal friendship in the least," Governor Allen said as a representative of the attorney general's office was ordered here to serve a warrant on White.

Ku Klux Klan Support White

Topeka, Kan., July 21.—The Ku Klux Klan in Kansas was today reported to have joined William Allen White in support of the railroad strikers in defiance of Governor Allen and the industrial court.

Deny Offering Aid

Atlanta, Ga., July 21.—The Ku Klux Klan today denied its plans to offer its services to state and federal authorities in helping prevent strike violence.

"We anticipate no such action," S. L. Savage, chief, declared.

OLD GENERAL APATHY LEADER IN ALABAMA

(By United Press)
Birmingham, Ala., July 21.—After a campaign of unparalleled apathy, Alabama will elect a governor, legislature and state officers in the democratic primary August 8.

Because of the overwhelming strength of the democratic party in this state, nomination is tantamount to election and the real contest is in the primary rather than the general election in November.

After a campaign lasting four years, Judge W. W. Brandon, of Tuscaloosa, is seeking the governorship. He is opposed by Gen. Bibb Graves, of Montgomery, but issues between the two have been lacking.

Immediately after his defeat four years ago by Gov. Thos. E. Kilby, Brandon began campaigning, with his eye on 1922, and astute politicians regard him as absolutely certain of election as a consequence.

Principal issue in the legislative race is whether or not the Alabama Power Co. shall continue to benefit from its exemption from taxes on approximately $10,000,000 worth of property. Some candidates are attempting to make this an issue, but so unanimous are those offering for office that little smoke can be raised.

Little interest has been manifested by voters in the remaining races, the principal ones being for state treasurer, secretary of state, and members of the public service commission.

In the latter contest, the chairman, not up for re-election, is assailing vigorously the two associate members seeking re-election.

In the congressional races, practically all congressmen have opposition, but voters have devoted what little attention they have given to politics to the state races.

Activities of a number of women candidates, as a result of which one editor was thrashed by a candidate's husband, have furnished the sole colorful touch to an otherwise drab campaign.

LONG SKIRTS MEAN FLAPPER MUST GO

By HEDDA HOYT

(Written for the United Press.) New York, July 21.—In accordance with the evolution of dress, flappers are destined to be relegated to the junk heap of forgotten fashions.

The little knee-length skirts and saucy hats are doomed to rest in the garret with the hoop skirts and bonnets of other days.

The bobbed head-dress is to receive the same fate of the spit curls of yesterday. The household cook is to fall heir to the low-heeled sandals.

And the culprit who wished all of this on us is—the long skirt. There is no use arguing about it, the long skirt is coming back. Some joy-killers say it is here already.

"What does the long skirt have to do with ousting the flapper?" you ask. Can you imagine a long-skirted female with a crop of short hair? It can't be done.

The little bobbed heads simply demanded the bobbed skirts and now with skirts reaching within four inches of the floor, the flapper is certainly undergoing "one of the crises of her life."

Taste in Dinner Frocks

"American women are better dressed on the streets than when in smart restaurants and roof gardens," commented a French connoisseur of gowns who returned to Paris this week.

"It is surprising," he said, "to note the difference between the excellent taste of American street costumes and the lack of taste in dinner frocks. On the Avenue, one finds little distinction between the shop girl and the debutante. They are all beautifully shod; their gowns have the chic of French creations; their bearing reminds one of the ancient Greeks and their figures are superb. But," he added, "they could learn the art of dressing for the dinner hours and for the roof gardens from the European women. In America there is either too much over dressing or too much under-dressing at informal gatherings."

Those of us who resent foreign criticism of American women's dress will do well to glance about us at the smart restaurants. If the debutante, the shop girl, the society matron and the manicurist can not be told apart upon our streets, they can there. The debutante is usually too overpoweringly gowned in evening frocks that should be worn exclusively at formal functions. The shop girl with the out-of-town buyer is either gowned in a home-made replica of the gown of the debutante or in a street dress with a street hat. The flapper flaps at the dinner hour just as she has flapped all day—fringed skirt, woolen hose, sweater and with a sport hat flopping over one eye.

In a room of two hundred women perhaps only thirty will be appropriately gowned. We are an odd mixture of weeds and orchids.

At public places, where anyone who has the price of a dinner may congregate, there should be the semi-evening frock. These should not be cut too extreme in décolleté and should have some semblance of sleeves.

Advice to Flapper

The flapper should flap out of her flapper raiment at dinner hours into a sheer little organdy, or into a pretty, colorful georgette. She can look just as girlish in a little snug-fitting bodice with tiny puffed sleeves and a full, fluffy skirt as she can in knee-length plaits which are only suitable for sport or day wear.

The shop girl will find a mauve or dull hued crepe de chene suitable for dinner wear and one which will come within the bounds of her pocketbook. By selecting georgette in neutral shades which are so popular just now, she may add different colored slips and sashes and feel that she has an entirely new frock.

The same suggestion can be used with the Spanish lace gowns that are having such a vogue at present. A mauve colored lace frock cut on long waisted lines, with wide flowing lace sleeves and uneven hem-line, may be worn over salmon yellow, orchid, orange or any pastel shade that is becoming. By changing the underslip, the whole gown is changed.

The underslip for these above mentioned gowns need not be of silk, for the lingerie material is fully as soft and is far less expensive.

One can not tell the woman with her name on the social register how she should dress in public places, but her breeding and good taste should tell her that too much elaboration is not the thing.

Mr. Haydon had not expected to find a plane capable of carrying him into the higher air, nor had he believed that he could be induced to leave the solid ground, but his experience of yesterday has led him to conclude that when the aeroplane has been brought under more perfect control the automobile will lose much of its attractiveness.

The knack in making a plate that both looks well and fits well is possessed by few. That is why you should consult the Dr. Burrill Dentists. 35ct

The case of Harry C. Toms was called in municipal court at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon before Municipal Judge Warner. The defendant is charged with manslaughter in the second degree. At the time of going to press Albert Fennett was on the stand and had, up to that time, testified to substantially the same set of facts as brought out in the coroner's inquiry into the tragedy. F. E. Murphy of Crosby appears for the defense and County Attorney S. F. Alderman for the state of Minnesota.

You who have teeth difficult to extract consult the Dr. Burrill Dentists and see how easily it can be done. 35ct

LONG SKIRTS MEAN FLAPPER MUST GO

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for the United Press.)

New York, July 21.—In accordance with the evolution of dress, flappers are destined to be relegated to the junk heap of forgotten fashions.

The little knee-length skirts and saucy hats are doomed to rest in the garret with the hoop skirts and bonnets of other days.

The bobbed head-dress is to receive the same fate of the spit curls of yesterday. The household cook is to fall heir to the low-heeled sandals.

And the culprit who wished all of this on us is—the long skirt. There is no use arguing about it, the long skirt is coming back. Some joy-killers say it is here already.

"What does the long skirt have to do with ousting the flapper?" you ask. Can you imagine a long-skirted female with a crop of short hair? It can't be done.

The little bobbed heads simply demanded the bobbed skirts and now with skirts reaching within four inches of the floor, the flapper is certainly undergoing "one of the crises of her life."

Taste in Dinner Frocks

"American women are better dressed on the streets than when in smart restaurants and roof gardens," commented a French connoisseur of gowns who returned to Paris this week.

"It is surprising," he said, "to note the difference between the excellent taste of American street costumes and the lack of taste in dinner frocks. On the Avenue, one finds little distinction between the shop girl and the debutante. They are all beautifully shod; their gowns have the chic of French creations; their bearing reminds one of the ancient Greeks and their figures are superb. But," he added, "they could learn the art of dressing for the dinner hours and for the roof gardens from the European women. In America there is either too much over dressing or too much under-dressing at informal gatherings."

Those of us who resent foreign criticism of American women's dress will do well to glance about us at the smart restaurants. If the debutante, the shop girl, the society matron and the manicurist can not be told apart upon our streets, they can there. The debutante is usually too overpoweringly gowned in evening frocks that should be worn exclusively at formal functions. The shop girl with the out-of-town buyer is either gowned in a home-made replica of the gown of the debutante or in a street dress with a street hat. The flapper flaps at the dinner hour just as she has flapped all day—fringed skirt, woolen hose, sweater and with a sport hat flopping over one eye.

In a room of two hundred women perhaps only thirty will be appropriately gowned. We are an odd mixture of weeds and orchids.

At public places, where anyone who has the price of a dinner may congregate, there should be the semi-evening frock. These should not be cut too extreme in decollete and should have some semblance of sleeves.

Advice to Flapper

The flapper should flap out of her flapper raiment at dinner hours into a sheer little organdy, or into a pretty, colorful georgette. She can look just as girlish in a little snug-fitting bodice with tiny puffed sleeves and a full, fluffy skirt as she can in knee-length plaits which are only suitable for sport or day wear.

The shop girl will find a mauve or dull hued crepe de chene suitable for dinner wear and one which will come within the bounds of her pocketbook. By selecting georgette in neutral shades which are so popular just now, she may add different colored slips and sashes and feel that she has an entirely new frock.

The same suggestion can be used with the Spanish lace gowns that are having such a vogue at present. A mauve colored lace frock cut on long waisted lines, with wide flowing lace sleeves and uneven hem-line, may be worn over salmon yellow, orchid, orange or any pastel shade that is becoming. By changing the underslip, the whole gown is changed.

The underslip for these above mentioned gowns need not be of silk, for the lingette material is fully as soft and is far less expensive.

One can not tell the woman with her name on the social register how she should dress in public places, but her breeding and good taste should tell her that too much elaboration is not the thing.

Rumored Kidnapping Denied by Authorities

CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Taylor of Lake Edward Township, Observe Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

DECENDANT OF ZACH. TAYLOR

12th President of the United States—
73 Guests, Including Five Children, Offer Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Taylor, of Lake Edwards township, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Thursday evening, July 20. There were 73 guests present, together with five children and a number of grandchildren.

Many interesting facts were brought to light as Mr. and Mrs. Taylor reviewed their lives. One of these being that Mr. Taylor is a descendant of Zachary Taylor, twelfth president of the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor's grandfathers lived as neighbors and friends in middle life in Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were born less than a mile apart and through all their years except the brief period of infancy have been acquainted. Mr. Taylor is one of a family of 12 children and Mrs. Taylor one of a family of 10 children. A brother of Mr. Taylor and a brother of Mrs. Taylor have both passed the fiftieth anniversary of their marriages. Mr. Taylor's brother living in Harland, Iowa, and Mrs. Taylor's brother at Oelwein, Iowa.

A lawn party, much appreciated by all present, was the happy medium of celebration. Music and reminiscences entertained the people present.

Clara Lutheran Sunday School Picnic

The Sunday school picnic of the Clara Lutheran church will be held at Fitzpatrick's place on South Long lake next Sunday.

Cars have been gotten for all the children and all other cars are requested to be at the church at nine o'clock a. m. that we may go in a body.

Devotional services at 10:30. A short program by some of the Sunday school children will also be given in connection with this service.

All members and friends are welcome to this picnic.

FASHION NOTES

Oil-skin slickers, bathing suits, umbrellas, sou'western hats, galoshes and woolen sweaters were the favorite costumes worn about New York and vicinity on July 4. It was a glad day for the girl with the permanent wave which is guaranteed against rain.

Reds are considered dead in Paris, although green continues to be popular in shades such as reseda, water green and that bluish green that is found on iron. Soft shades, such as tan, gray, golden brown, mocha and powder blue are smarter than high colors.

Beaded velvet gowns will be popular this fall.

Sensational Automobile Episode

Night scenes of surpassing beauty are a feature of the new Thomas H. Ince production for Paramount, "Beau Revel", which comes to the Lyceum theatre for tonight only. One of the "punch" scenes of the picture is an auto smash, showing two autos, with headlights flashing, rushing down a road in the moonlight and swerving into each other in front of the camera. No slight ingenuity on the part of the director and cameraman was required to put this sensational crash across.

Different lighting effects were used for each character in the picture. The cast of which includes such players as Lewis Stone, Florence Vidor, Lloyd Hughes, William Conklin, Kathleen Kirkham, Harlan Tucker and others. Each player was treated individually from a lighting angle, an innovation in photography. "Beau Revel" was directed by John G. Wray, under the personal supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

Two more reels of the 10,000 Lakes pictures are on the same program.

BRAINERD TOMORROW

The splendid offer of A. A. White of St. Paul to give to Crow Wing county one hundred lots of land lying south and west of the county building calls for enthusiastic acceptance by the commissioners of this county in their capacity as custodians of Crow Wing county's properties.

Reliable information shows that Mr. White made this offer when influenced by the sentiments stirred into life through the memories of the past reawakened by the celebration of Brainerd's Fiftieth anniversary and home-coming week. He offered to give the extensive land to the county for $1, payable in 50 years, without interest.

Mr. White was accompanied by a committee which is to further the organization of a Crow Wing County Park association if the offer is accepted. This committee would be a nucleus around which the larger association would grow, having as its purpose the development of the land which Mr. White has so generously offered to the county.

The commissioners may conclude, with justification for their conclusion, that they cannot undertake to pledge county funds for such developments. However, they may accept the offer and obligate themselves to further in every way possible the activities of the contemplated park association charged with the task of undertaking such improvements. Perhaps the commissioners would be justified in concluding that no definite improvement or construction program should be made a part of the agreement at the time of acceptance. But if it is possible to secure these lots without assuming obligations the commissioners do not feel themselves in a position to assume, they should be accepted by the commissioners of Crow Wing county.

Daniel Hudson Burnham, the father of the plan for the building of Chicago for tomorrow, known as the Chicago plan, said: "Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood and probably themselves will not be realized. Make big plans; aim high in hope and work, remembering that a noble, logical diagram once recorded will never die, but long after we are gone will be a living thing, asserting itself with ever growing insistency. Remember that our sons and grandsons are going to do the things that would stagger us. Let your watchword be order and your beacon beauty."

Mr. White's offer makes possible to the citizens of Crow Wing county in that tomorrow, when Brainerd is the center of a large city and rural population, a place of utility and of beauty. It is our privilege now to do the planning and, if we are not able to make of these lots what we would wish did circumstance permit, our sons will complete the developments and thank God for our dreams.

INTERNATIONAL DEMONSTRATION AGAINST WAR

THE voices of labor and church groups in many countries will be raised in denunciation of war on July 29-30. Other associations in many lands, including veterans' organizations and uplift clubs, will take part in the demonstration against war. The slogan "No More War" is to be printed on millions of posters and the whole of the United States placarded. In other countries such measures as seem most effective will be adopted. It is expected that President Harding will be presented with a petition signed by many thousands requesting him to continue his efforts in behalf of world peace.

The time for the demonstration is set on the dates immediately preceding those on which the World War broke out eight years ago. Last year such a demonstration was held in two hundred cities and this year it is expected that millions of people in the civilized world will participate.

It is right and fitting that such attempts to organize sentiment against war should be made.

After every great war there comes quick forgetfulness of the horrors of warfare, and when the horrors of war have been forgotten it is easier to initiate another armed conflict. The time when war is raging is not the time to unite to end war. We were told that the last war was a war against war but neither in the period of its sway nor after its conclusion were there evidences of the success of such a program. In time of peace prepare for peace! is a slogan which contains true wisdom.

War is an evil which, judged by its dread consequences, is more to be deplored than anything but the evils which make it possible. Yet war is still recognized as the means of settling international. In other words, war ought to be outlawed by the pooled broken down. This ought not to be. It reflects on the world intelligence of peoples in civilized nations. And efforts must be directed toward the ending of war by declaring that it shall not be recognized as a legitimate method of settling troubles between nations. In other words, was ought to be outlawed by the pooled intelligence of the world. And this position is strengthened by the accounts of what the next war would mean, as these are given by those who are in a position to see its dread possibilities, as much, or more, than it is emphasized by the remembered horrors of the war so recently ended.

Proof in the Taste

Devils Lake, July 21—The proof is in the taste and Federal Judge Andrew Miller trusts no other sense in accepting evidence against a moonshiner. Therefore Welling Wright, U. S. revenue agent, was barred from testifying against Clem Job, alleged moonshiner of Knox, N. D.

Wright said the matter confiscated smelled and looked like intoxicants but the judge did not consider the conclusion of the olfactory and visual organs sufficient. Either the report of a chemist or the testimony of a man accustomed to liquor must be presented.

District Attorney Hildreth in arguing that an officer cannot be expected to taste all beverages seized was about to offer the revenue officer his first drink when it was noted that the evidence was marked "poison."

FRANCE MUST CUT DOWN ARMY TO PAY DEBTS

Paris, July 21 (United Press)—France is complying with the fundamental condition of remunerative international commerce—her exports for the first five months of the present year show an excess of six billion francs, or about $550,000,000 over her imports.

Despite the unfavorable exchange rate, American exporters have been able to do considerable business with French firms, as is indicated by the sharp drop in the franc registered at the beginning of June when French importers had to start purchasing dollars for the end of June settlement.

Financial circles expect a quick recovery in the franc when the settlement will have been completed, but they make no attempt to hide the fact that this recovery is likely to be of short duration.

The announcement by Premier Lloyd George that England intends to ask France next October to begin the payment of the interest on her war debt has brought realization of the fact, which has been apparent to financiers for a long time, that France's foreign trade is inevitably bound up with the question of inter-allied debts.

The allies owe the United States $250,000,000 for America's expenses in participating in the "water on the Rhine" and the part which France must meet of this sum is high. Moreover, France has before her eyes always the spectre of her vast war debt to the United States for material purchased during hostilities. Until some settlement of this problem is found, the franc must continue to be the plaything of speculators and France's foreign trade must suffer. For the French, there is only one solution—to force Germany to pay her bill for reparations or to induce America to cancel the allied debts.

American business men and financiers who visit this country are practically unanimous in urging another solution, which consists in the reduction of France's military burden and devoting the money thus saved to paying her debts.

"The exchange is improving but it still militates strongly against American exporters," said A. J. Horlick, of Racine, Wis., after a long tour of the chief possible customers of American houses. "France in fact all Europe, must set her house in order before American capital can enter or American credits be extended."

An Editor's Fate
An editor died and slowly wended his way to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil saw him and said: "For many years thou has borne the blame for the many errors made in the paper. The paper has gone, alas, for $1 and the $1 has often failed to come in. The printers have deviled thee on Saturday night for wages when thou hadst not one cent to thy name. Men have taken the paper without paying for it and cursed thee for not getting it out better. Thou hast been called a dead beat by passenger conductors when thou hast shown thy annual pass to envious gaze. All this thou hast borne in silence. Thou canst not come in here," and he fired him. "Heaven is his home; and besides, if we let him come in here he will continually dun delinquent subscribers for our habitation is full of them and thus create disorder in my kingdom."

BRAINERD TOMORROW

THE splendid offer of A. A. White of St. Paul to give to Crow Wing county one hundred lots of land lying south and west of the county building calls for enthusiastic acceptance by the commissioners of this county in their capacity as custodians of Crow Wing county's properties.

Reliable information shows that Mr. White made this offer when influenced by the sentiments stirred into life through the memories of the past reawakened by the celebration of Brainerd's Fiftieth anniversary and home-coming week. He offered to give the extensive land to the county for $1, payable in 50 years, without interest.

Mr. White was accompanied by a committee which is to further the organization of a Crow Wing County Park association if the offer is accepted. This committee would be a nucleus around which the larger association would grow, having as its purpose the development of the land which Mr. White has so generously offered to the county.

The commissioners may conclude, with justification for their conclusion, that they cannot undertake to pledge county funds for such developments. However, they may accept the offer and obligate themselves to further in every way possible the activities of the contemplated park association charged with the task of undertaking such improvements. Perhaps the commissioners would be justified in concluding that no definite improvement or construction program should be made a part of the agreement at the time of acceptance. But if it is possible to secure these lots without assuming obligations the commissioners do not feel themselves in a position to assume, they should be accepted by the commissioners of Crow Wing county.

Daniel Hudson Burnham, the father of the plan for the building of Chicago for tomorrow, known as the Chicago plan, said: "Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood and probably themselves will not be realized. Mr. White's offer makes possible to the citizens of Crow Wing county in that tomorrow, when Brainerd is the center of a large city and rural population, a place of utility and of beauty. It is our privilege now to do the planning and, if we are not able to make of these lots what we would wish did circumstance permit, our sons will complete the developments and thank God for our dreams.

It is right and fitting that such attempts to organize sentiment against war should be made.

After every great war there comes quick forgetfulness of the horrors of warfare, and when the horrors of war have been forgotten it is easier to initiate another armed conflict. The time when war is raging is not the time to unite to end war. We were told that the last war was a war against war but neither in the period of its sway nor after its conclusion were there evidences of the success of such a program. Yet war is still recognized as the means of settling international disputes. In other words, war ought to be outlawed by the pooled broken down. This ought not to be. NEW PARK THEATRE TO BE REMODELED

Will be Closed Saturday for Six Weeks to Do the Work—Will Cost from $5,000 to $6,000

MAKE THEATRE A SHOW PLACE

And Effort Will be Made in the Future to Secure Fine Line of Road Shows Each Season

The New Park theatre will be closed after the show Saturday evening for a period of six or seven weeks for the purpose of renovating and improving the interior of the building and making necessary improvements on the exterior.

When these improvements, which will cost from $5,000 to $6,000, are completed, the New Park theatre will be the show place of Brainerd to which people will invite their visiting friends from outside of the city for the purpose of showing them Brainerd's most attractive building.

For two or three years the owners have contemplated extensive improvements for the theatre which is the only building in this city of 10,000 people equipped for the putting on of high grade road shows. It has been felt during this time that the patronage warrants the expense necessary to make those improvements which will make possible the very best of acts to entertain the people of Brainerd.

These plans which have been under way for some considerable time have finally been brought into a concrete set of specifications for the renovation and remodeling of the theatre. These specifications include the tearing out of the boxes and the paneling of the part of the auditorium where the boxes now stand. Around the edge of the panels decorative plaster work will be used of a similar character to that effectively used in the State theatre in Minneapolis. The stage will be remodeled so as to adequately handle the biggest and best road shows that can be induced to come to Brainerd. The theatre has already booked Fiske O'Hara for a show in December. This is a musical comedy organization. Sherman Kelly Stock Co. has been booked for a week in the fall. A Brady comedy drama will be offered in February.

The decorations are to be of high grade and include the finishing of the walls in old ivory and gold. The lighting effects will be completely remodeled and the soft light diffused from the new lighting fixtures will be appreciated by the patrons of the theatre.

A new motor generating set for picture work, will be installed. This will be the latest thing in projection equipment and will result in a picture as well lighted and, therefore, as clear and effective as any seen anywhere in the United States.

All of the scenery for stage effects will be renewed so as to provide the very best scenery for the many road shows which the management expects to book. While the stage in the New Park will not be as large as those of the theatres in the larger cities, it will be completely equipped to afford the effective acting of the dramas that are offered the public. The mechanical appliances for the changing of the scenery on the stage will be in every way brought up to the test of high grade service to avoid the necessity of keeping the people waiting for long periods between acts.

The external improvements will include a thorough renewal of parts of the roof which need replacing and the building of a new smoke stack to afford a better draught for the heating plant.

The management has been in negotiations with the distributors of the best pictures, and contracts are being completed, to show some of the best available, in this city. Enough pictures have been bought ahead to enable the management to give only the very best to the patrons of the New Park.

Clyde E. Parker has long wished to have the theatre so improved as to make it a place in which the citizens of Brainerd might have pride and the improvements which are to be begun after the showing of "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight" on Saturday evening the last picture to be screened, and a feature picture, before the work begins, will make of the New Park one of the finest theatres in the State of Minnesota and equal to anything outside of the larger cities.

A. W. Force, the energetic manager of the New Park, sees a splendid future for the theatre.

NOTICE

Water will be shut off in N. E. Brainerd Saturday at 7:30 a. m. to connect hydrant at 4th avenue and Forsyth street.

BIG INCREASE IN JUNE BUSINESS

Local Telephone Exchange Shows Greatest Increase in Entire District

SHOWS INCREASE OF 29%

Seventeen Operators Are Employed—Busiest Time of Day is From 9 to 11 A. M.

The Brainerd Exchange of the Northwestern Telephone Co. had the largest increase in business for the month of June, over the month of May, of any of the 47 exchanges in the district. This increase amounted to 29 per cent.

Henry D. Hoffman, the manager of this local exchange, thoughtfully arranged for the giving of information of general interest to the public and the efficient and courteous chief operator, Miss Jennie Nordberg, gave some interesting facts about the volume of business handled by the operators. These were as follows: The average calls per phone for the month of June of this year was four and three-tenths per day, for the 2,357 phones in use during that month. The calls handled in one day for the month of June averaged 10,060 as against 9,189 in November. The November calls averaging 4 per phone. In November the calls per operator local and toll averaged 147. In May 162, in Oct. 135 and in June 158. These are the averages over the switch board and not the calls handled by individual operators which vary. The load carried by the board by units, local and toll, was for the month of June 11,755 per day, May 12,744, and in October 9,523. The difference between the number of calls completed and the number of units mentioned is due to the fact that it takes two operators to handle rural calls.

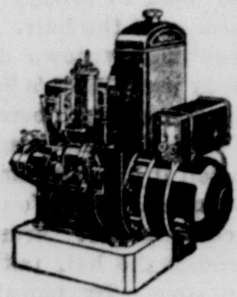

The ticket record, or the long distance calls' record, is as follows: For June 6874, for January 4,197 and already for July up to and through the 20th 4,875 as against 4509 for the same period of last month, or an increase of 366 tickets.

There are 17 operators on the local exchange. Between 9 and 11 a. m. which is the busiest time in the day there are eleven operators on the board in addition to the chief operator.

Two operators are at present on vacation. At the time when the information was secured, between 1 and 2 p. m. there were six operators and the chief operator on the board. Two relief operators are held in readiness to take the board.

The local exchange attempts to give the best possible service. Changes in wiring have at times interfered with the best efficiency of the board but the company at all times insists upon courtesy, accuracy and speed in dealing with its patrons, and the operators are intent upon giving these three things, that the service may be entirely satisfactory. The operators appreciate the manner in which the public makes allowances for any of those unfortunate interferences with the smooth working of the system that prevent the best possible service.

GREAT DEMAND FOR BUILDING MATERIAL

More and Better Homes are Being Built in Brainerd This Year Say Material Men

LAKE IMPROVEMENTS LARGE

Farmers are Also Giving More Attention to Improvements Than in the Past Years

The lumber companies of Brainerd have received unusually large orders for materials during this year. They state that more and better homes are being built than in the past. Many people in Brainerd have either built this year or are building at this time homes of various degrees of pretentiousness.

In talking over the matter of the building developments in the city and surrounding country, T. B. Brusegaard, of the Lakeside Lumber Co., said things that are common to the lumber dealers in the city. In naming some of the people who have been or are at this time engaged in building homes, Mr. Brusegaard mentioned, Albert O. Anderson Henry Reichman, Charles Risk, Karl Huhtala, Victor Peterson, Arthur Nykonen and John Schley, a farmer out in the Dykemann district who has built for himself a beautiful home.

M. E. Hitch is just beginning the building of a home on West Kingwood street.

Speaking of the demand for materials for the rural districts, Mr. Brusegaard said that the dealers have noticed an unusual thing about this year's business which is that the farmers are giving much more attention to the improvements of homes than in the past. The usual demand is for materials to go into the construction of barns, whereas this season the demand has been for materials for home building.

The demand for materials for the lake resorts has been heavy. The most pretentious lake home constructed during the season being that of Henry B. Babson, of Chicago, on Pelican lake.

A new main building was added at Breezy Point, Capt. W. H. Fawcett, proprietor. This building provides for a fine cafe and a large and beautiful lobby on the main floor and rooms on the second floor.

A number of cottages have been built at Cinosam, a half a dozen or more on Henry White's lots, and many other cottages on adjacent lakes, Pelican, Gull, Mille Lacs, East Round and North Long lakes.

There has been an additional demand for materials for larger and smaller improvements and extensions to homes and other buildings which has helped to place the business of the lumber companies above any recorded in past seasons.

"More and better homes have been built during this season than at any time since we opened up our business in Brainerd" is the opinion expressed by Mr. Brusegaard.

RESTRAINING ORDER

To each of the above named defendants, respectively, and to all other persons affiliating, acting, combining, conspiring, agreeing or arranging with them:

Whereas, in the above named case it has been made to appear on verified bill of complaint filed herein, which was on the 19th day of July 1922, presented to the Honorable Wilbur F. Booth, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, Third Division, that a restraining order, preliminary to hearing upon a preliminary injunction, is necessary and proper and that prima facie the plaintiff is entitled to a restraining order, restraining the defendants herein and those affiliated, acting, combining, conspiring, agreeing or arranging with them from doing the acts complained of and threatened to be committed.

And it appearing to the Court that the injuries threatened are: great loss and destruction of plaintiff's property, wrongful and unlawful interference with and interference with the conduct of plaintiff's business as a common carrier and carrier of the United States mails, and interference with the performance of plaintiff's duties under the Interstate Commerce Act and other Federal statutes applicable to railroads and subjecting plaintiff to fines for failure to promptly and safely carry the United States mails in accordance with the laws of the United States, and loss of life and personal injury to plaintiff's employees; and it further appearing to the Court that immediate and irreparable injury, loss and damage will result to plaintiff before notice can be served and hearing had thereon, for the reason that it appears that acts of violence are being perpetrated by the above named defendants and other persons combining and conspiring, acting, agreeing or arranging with them, and that such persons have established unlawful picket lines and have threatened the employees of plaintiff in diverse unlawful ways, so that the employees of plaintiff are being hindered, molested, intimidated and prevented from performing their regular work in connection with the maintenance and repair of plaintiff's motive power and equipment, so that there is imminent and immediate danger that the service of plaintiff will be interfered with, delayed and interrupted; and it further appearing to the Court that said injuries will be irreparable for the reason that defendants are not so financially responsible that adequate judgments could be collected from them, and that the acts complained of are of such a character that they cannot be compensated for in damages, and that said acts will be committed before hearing unless a restraining order is issued immediately and without notice to defendants;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of the plaintiff, it is ordered that the defendants answer before the District Court of the United States, District of Minnesota, Third Division, at a session to be held in the City of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota, in said District upon Friday, the 28th day of July, 1922, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the said day and then and there show cause, if any there may be, why the preliminary injunction therein prayed should not issue. It appearing to the Court that the above described injuries for the prevention of which this restraining order is issued are irreparable because they cannot be compensated for in damages, and may subject plaintiff to fines and forfeitures and are liable to occur before a hearing upon notice can be had, this restraining order is granted without notice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that a temporary restraining order be and hereby is issued herein, commanding the defendants hereinbefore described, and any and all other persons in active concert or participating with them, and all persons associating or acting with them in the so-called "strike" of the members of the six federated sources named, and all other persons who are within the District of Minnesota, having notice of this order pending the further order of this Court, to absolutely desist and refrain from:

(1) In any manner interfering with the free use and occupation by plaintiff of any and all its property or premises of every kind or character, and from interfering with, hindering, obstructing or stopping any of the business of plaintiff or its agents, officers and employees in the operation of plaintiff's railroad or any department or part thereof; and restraining them from such interference.

(2) In any manner whatsoever, by use of threats, personal injury, suggestions of danger, or threats of violence of any kind, interfering with, hindering, obstructing or stopping any person engaged in the employ of the plaintiff, or any person desiring to enter its employment in connection with its business or the operation of its line of railroad in the District of Minnesota.

(3) Inducing or attempting to induce or compel by threats, intimidation, force, or violence, or by the fear or suggestion of harm or danger, any person so employed or desiring such employment, to leave the employ of the plaintiff, or any of their duties as employees, if employed, or to enter such employment, if they so desire.

(4) Interfering with the employees of said plaintiff in going to or from their daily work.

(5) Going to the homes of said plaintiff's employees, either singly or collectively, or any of them, for the purpose of intimidating them, or coercing any or all of them to leave the employment of the plaintiff, and from intimidating or threatening by letters, telephone or in any manner said employees, their wives, or families.

(6) Protecting, aiding or assisting any person or persons in committing any of said acts so restrained as aforesaid.

(7) Trespassing, assembling, loitering or congregating upon, about or in proximity to the shops, roundhouses, depots, tracks, yards or other premises of the plaintiff at St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Brainerd, Staples, Dilworth, East Grand Forks or elsewhere in Minnesota, for the purpose of doing or attempting to do any of the acts so restrained, as aforesaid.

(8) Picketing or maintaining at or near the premises of the plaintiff, or on or near the streets, alleys, paths or roads leading to the premises of the plaintiff, any representative or representatives, except that one or more of the time of all of said defendants may be maintained at each of the points of ingress and egress to said premises now and ordinarily used or heretofore used by the plaintiff for the purpose only of announcing the strike and peacefully persuading the employees and would-be employees to join defendants herein, or doing any act or thing whatever in furtherance of any conspiracy or combination among them, or any of them, to obstruct or interfere with plaintiff's officers, agents or employees in the free and unrestrained control and operation of its railroad and the conduct of its business, and in any manner or way mutilating any copies of any writs issued or posted hereunder.

Service of this order shall be made by copy thereof served on the defendants named in the bill. It is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be published in the St. Paul Dispatch and St. Paul Daily News, both in St. Paul; Minneapolis Journal, Minneapolis Tribune and Minneapolis Daily News, all in Minneapolis; Herald and Duluth News-Tribune, both in Duluth; The Brainerd Daily Dispatch, in Brainerd; all in Minnesota; that a copy also be posted in three public places in close proximity to the place of plaintiff in the several places mentioned herein; and that the Marshal of this Court be directed immediately to publish and post notices of this restraining order in the manner stated, and that he be and hereby is authorized and directed to commission a sufficient number of Deputy Marshals to make this order in all respects promptly effective, and to continue the same in effect until the further order of this Court.

The plaintiff, having given a bond in the penal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), conditioned according to law, this order be, and the same hereby is made immediately effective.

This order to remain in effect until and including the 28th day of July, A. D. 1922, and to such further time as this Court may hereafter order in the manner provided by law, of which notice must be taken.

This order signed and issued this 19th day of July, 1922, at 4 o'clock P. M.

"Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

"Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," the melodramatic offering that comes to the New Park on Friday and Saturday, promises an unusual treat for lovers of homely drama that gets under the skin. It is a splendidly photographed production and tells a story that touches every human heart and does it in a way to grip the interest and hold it in its clutch to the last flicker of the picture. "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," as one can conjecture from this sentimental title, has heart interest in abundance. And the strain on the feelings is lightened at times by situations calling for quiet chuckles rather than laughter.

The dominating note is simplicity. Three of the four principals are small-town folks—the mother, her son and the latter's sweetheart—and the two former live in a cottage. The sweetheart is the employee of the town's big business man—grocer and banker combined. The fourth member of the quartet is a girl of the show in the city. In the situations revolving around the Boy and the Show Girl there are flashes of Broadway life as it was in the old days—of a cabaret, with dancing girls and clinking glasses and riotous mirth.

Fire Destroys Home

The substantial farm home of Henry Hemphill located on the state road nine miles north of Pillager, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday night of last week, together with all contents, and a small shed. How the fire started is not known, but the hired man staying there said he was awakened about two a. m. and the flames then had a good headway. $2,000 insurance was carried on the house. Mr. Hemphill and family were in South Dakota on an auto trip and did not learn of their loss until returning to Pillager last Saturday noon. Mr. Hemphill will erect a small temporary residence to live in.—Pillager Herald.

Explains Salmon's Jump.

The bureau of fisheries says that at the bottom of a fall there is usually a very deep well. The salmon swim to the extreme bottom of this well and if they have sufficient depth of water to give force to get the power to jump, they do so by swimming very fast and rushing out. This force mechanically causes them to jump the falls.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

RESTRAINING ORDER

To each of the above named defendants, respectfully, and to all other persons affiliated, acting, combining, conspiring, agreeing or arranging with them:

Whereas, in the above named case it has been made to appear on verified bill of complaint filed herein, which was on the 19th day of July, 1922, presented to the Honorable W. L. Booth, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, Third Division, that a restraining order in preliminary injunction, is necessary and proper and that prima facie the plaintiff is entitled to a restraining order, restraining the defendants herein and those affiliated, acting, combining, conspiring, agreeing or arranging with them from the acts complained of and threatened to be committed.

And it appearing to the Court that the injuries threatened are great, loss and destruction of plaintiff's property, wrongful and unlawful interruption of and interference with the conduct of plaintiff's business as a common carrier of the United States mails, preventing plaintiff from performing its duties under the Interstate Commerce Act and other Federal statutes applicable to railroads and subjecting plaintiff to fines for failure to promptly and safely carry the United States mails in accordance with the laws of the United States, and loss of life and personal injury to plaintiff's employees; and it further appearing to the Court that the injuries threatened are great, loss and date and irreparable injury, loss and damage will result to plaintiff before notice can be served and hearing had thereon, for the reason that it appears that acts of violence are being perpetrated by the above named defendants and other persons combining, conspiring, acting, agreeing or arranging with them, and that such persons have established unlawful picket lines and have threatened the employees of plaintiff in divers unlawful ways so that the employees of plaintiff are being hindered, molested, intimidated and prevented from performing their regular work in connection with the maintenance and repair of plaintiff's motive power and equipment, so that there is imminent and immediate danger that the train service of plaintiff will be interrupted with delay and interruption; and it further appearing to the Court that said injuries will be irreparable for the reason that defendants are not so financially responsible that adequate judgments could be collected from them, and that the acts complained of are of such a character that they cannot be compensated for in damages, and that said acts will be committed before hearing unless a restraining order is issued immediately and without notice to defendants;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of the plaintiff, it is ordered that the defendants herein appear before the District Court of the United States, District of Minnesota, Third Division, at a session to be held in the City of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota, in said District upon Friday, the 28th day of July, 1922, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the said day and then and there show cause, if any there may be, why the preliminary injunction therein prayed should not issue. It appearing to the Court that the above described injuries for the prevention of which this restraining order is issued are irreparable because they cannot be compensated for in damages, and may subject plaintiff to fines and forfeitures and are liable to occur before a hearing upon notice can be had, this restraining order is granted without notice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that a temporary restraining order be and hereby is issued herein, commanding the defendants hereinbefore described, and any and all other persons in active concert or participating with them, and all persons associating or acting with them in the so-called "strike" of the members of the six federated shopcrafts named, and all other persons who are within the District of Minnesota, having notice of this order pending the further order of this Court, to absolutely desist and refrain from—

(1) In any manner interfering with the free use and occupation by plaintiff of any and all its property or premises of every kind or character, and from interfering with, hindering, obstructing or stopping any of the business of plaintiff or its agents, officers and employees in the operation of plaintiff's railroad or any department or part thereof; and restraining them from such interference.

(2) In any manner whatsoever, by use of threats, personal injury, suggestions of danger, or threats of violence of any kind, interfering with, hindering, obstructing or stopping any person engaged in the employ of the plaintiff, or any person desiring to enter its employment in connection with its business or the operation of its line of railroad in the District of Minnesota.

(3) Inducing or attempting to induce or compel by threats, intimidation, force, or violence, or by the fear or suggestion of harm or danger, any person so employed or desiring such employment to perform any of their duties as employees, if employed, or to enter such employment, if they so desire.

(4) Interfering with the employees of said plaintiff in going to or from their daily work.

(5) Going to the homes of said plaintiff's employees, either singly or collectively, or any of them, for the purpose of intimidating them, or coercing any or all of them to leave the employment of said plaintiff, and from intimidating or threatening by letters, telephone or in any manner said employees, their wives, or families.

(6) Protecting, aiding or assisting any person or persons in committing any of said acts so restrained as aforesaid.

(7) Trespassing, assembling, loitering or congregating upon, about or near the premises of the plaintiff or on or near the streets, alleys, paths or roads leading to the premises of the plaintiff, any representative or representative of the plaintiff, or attempting to do any of the acts so restrained, as aforesaid.

(8) Picketing or maintaining at or near the premises of the plaintiff or on or near the streets, alleys, paths or roads leading to the premises of the plaintiff, any representative or representative of the plaintiff, or attempting to do any of the acts so restrained, as aforesaid.

(9) Doing any act or thing whatever in furtherance of any conspiracy or combination among them, or any of them, to obstruct or interfere with plaintiff's officers, agents or employees in the free and unrestrained control and operation of its railroad and the conduct of its business, and from defacing, tearing down, or in any manner or way mutilating any copies of any writs issued or posted hereunder.

Service of this order shall be made by copy thereof served on the defendants named in the bill. It is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be published in the St. Paul Dispatch and St. Paul Daily News, both in St. Paul; Minneapolis Journal, Minneapolis Tribune and Minneapolis Daily News, all in Minneapolis; Herald and Duluth News-Tribune, both in Duluth; The Brainerd Daily Dispatch, in Brainerd, all in Minnesota; and a copy also be posted in three public places in close proximity to the signs of plaintiff at the several places where the acts complained of are being committed, to wit: the Marshal of this Court be directed immediately to publish and post notices of this Restraining order in the manner stated, and that he be and hereby is authorized and directed to commission a sufficient number of Deputy Marshals to make this order in all respects promptly effective and to enforce the same in effect until the further order of this Court.

The plaintiff, having given a bond in the penal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), conditioned according to law, this order be, and the same hereby is made immediately effective.

This order to remain in effect until and including the 28th day of July, A. D. 1922, and to such further time as this Court may hereafter order in the manner provided by law, of which notice must be taken.

This order signed and issued this 19th day of July, 1922, at 4 o'clock P. M.

AMUSEMENTS

"Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

"Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," the melodramatic offering that comes to the New Park on Friday and Saturday, promises an unusual treat for lovers of homely drama that gets under the skin. It is a splendidly photographed production and tells a story that touches every human heart and does it in a way to grip the interest and hold it in its clutch to the last flicker of the picture. "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," as one can conjecture from this sentimental title, has heart interest in abundance. And the strain on the feelings is lightened at times by situations calling for quiet chuckles rather than laughter.

The dominating note is simplicity. Three of the four principals are small-town folks—the mother, her son and the latter's sweetheart—and the two former live in a cottage. The sweetheart is the employee of the town's big business man—grocer and banker combined. The fourth member of the quartet is a girl of the show in the city. In the situations revolving around the Boy and the Show Girl there are flashes of Broadway life as it was in the old days—of a cabaret, with dancing girls and clinking glasses and riotous mirth.

Fire Destroys Home

The substantial farm home of Henry Hemphill located on the state road nine miles north of Pillager, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday night of last week, together with all contents, and a small shed. How the fire started is not known, but the hired man staying there said he was awakened about two a. m. and the flames then had a good headway. $2,000 insurance was carried on the house. Mr. Hemphill and family were in South Dakota on an auto trip and did not learn of their loss until returning to Pillager last Saturday noon. Mr. Hemphill will erect a small temporary residence to live in.—Pillager Herald.

Explains Salmon's Jump.

The bureau of fisheries says that at the bottom of a fall there is usually a very deep well. The salmon swim to the extreme bottom of this well and if they have sufficient depth of water to give force to get the power to jump, they do so by swimming very fast and rushing out. This force mechanically causes them to jump the falls.

Grease.

It is much easier to wash a greasy pan if you heat it slightly before applying soap and water. This loosens the grease.

Gem of Thought.

If it be my lot to crawl, I will crawl contentedly; if to fly, I will fly with alacrity; but as long as I can possibly avoid it I will never be unhappy. If, with a pleasant wife, three children, a good house and farm, many books, and many friends who wish me well, I cannot be happy, I am a very silly, foolish fellow, and what becomes of me is of very little consequence.—Sydney Smith.

Cruel Fooling.

A Connecticut woman played an April fool trick on her husband by telling him she was going to sue for divorce, when she had no intention of doing it. Some women don't know the difference between a joke and a disappointment.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Paid Fancy Prices

"I paid an international authority on diseases of the stomach $1,500 and he didn't do me five cents' worth of good. I have been to various Spas in Europe, as well as this country and have spent fully $30,000 fruitlessly in search of a cure for my stomach trouble. Naturally I lost faith in any remedy for my case. My wife's brother had taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and praised it so highly that I tried it and am now entirely rid of that trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and all leading druggists.—Advt.
